*Profiles of spirits eager to know their own flights; Profiles of hunters who seek to slay their fears; Profiles of children who have been taught to shed
their protective shells and learn to build new walls around their vulnerabilities.*

Serving to outline the very natures of the Cambridge Students, this year the Pinnacle honors the many unique and multi-colored personalities which add a special brilliance to our small, yet sturdy, student body. This brilliance cannot be measured or estimated as can the light from a distant star because so many different personalities are part of that light's source, only in a very special place can the energy of 282 bursting colors be detected, a place that only the heart may know.

The background of the page is composed of several overlapping, stylized profile silhouettes of human faces. These silhouettes are rendered in a dark, textured grey. They are arranged in a way that creates a sense of depth and movement, with some faces appearing to be in the foreground and others receding into the background. The silhouettes are not perfectly uniform, giving them a hand-drawn or artistic feel. They are positioned across the entire page, with a higher concentration on the left side and a more sparse arrangement on the right.

Baby Face!

Silent sea
Tell this to me
Where are the children that we Used to be?

Silent Sea
At picture shows
Where nobody goes
And only the heart can see

Starry Skies
Soft lullabies
Where do they go when
Their melodies die

Starry Skies
To a day
Far far away
That only the heart may know

Friends we knew Follow us through
All of the days of our lives
Love we shared
Waits for us there
When our wishes forever reside

Falling tears
Memories mirrors
Where are the summers
Oh, where are the years?
Falling tears
Carried far
To a wandering star
That only the heart may know

Starry Skies
Soft lullabies
Where do they go when
their melodies die?
To a day
Far far away
That only the heart may know

Farewell to you and the youth I spent with you
It was but yesterday we met in a dream You have sung to me in my aloneness and I of your longings have built a tower to the sky But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over and it is no longer dawn
The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned turned to fuller days and we must part If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song And if our hands should meet in another dream, we shall build another tower to the sky

Kahlil Gibran

This book is lovingly dedicated to the Senior Class of 1983

Here's to good friends, tonight is kinda special!
